

Tolerance looks like:

Accepting that we are all different.

Respecting others may have a different opinion

Being polite when we think differently.

Listening to what other people have to say.

Tolerance sounds like:

Saying 'What do you think?'

Saying 'That's different, I never thought of it that way.'

Speaking positively about other people.

